FEARFEST-EVIL: CONDEMNED

THE AWARD WINNING & ULTIMATE EXPERIENCE IN HORROR UNEARTHS ITSELF THIS OCTOBER!

In the darkness, echoes of old-time music and laughter have begun to fill the hall and corridors of FearFest-Evil. An invitation to the curious ones to witness something more evil than before.

The existing creatures are no longer themselves, they have fallen to a new depth of madness. They are consumed by an unforgiving purpose to control, trap and torture people in cages. Once selected and prepped with paranormal fluid, these poor souls will feed the ancient evil.

Be warned, it comes with a promise; you will enjoy the fear, smile at the terror and embrace being... CONDEMNED

Chepstow's National Diving & Activity Centre presents FearFest-Evil: A live, immersive horror experience of epic proportions, taking guests on a terrifying journey through anxiety-inducing, adrenaline-filled indoor and outdoor environments.

Hapless horror fans will prepare themselves for a night of pure terror, as they are led through a series of increasingly heart-pounding Scare Zones.

Featuring gruesome characters, stunning sets and spine-chilling performances, FearFest-Evil offers a night of no-holds-barred jolly horror and immersive entertainment. Be prepared, the night creatures will touch you, scare you, taunt or even capture and blindfold you in cages. You will be immersed in terror like never before. Set around an abandoned railway line, disused quarry and forgotten woodland, FearFest-Evil is the ultimate Halloween scare experience for only the bravest of horror fans.

Tickets allow access to all Scare Zones (Tales of the Dark and The House of Horrors) as well as live entertainment. Optional extras include the 700m long Death Slide, a 245ft high Hangman's Swing and overnight glamping accommodation in Wooden Wigwam Cabins.

Now in its fourth year, the award winning event, FearFest-Evil has established itself as an eagerly attended mainstay, delighting and terrifying audiences in equal measure. Last year's event saw around 2,500 audience members welcomed through its doors in exhilarated droves. FearFest-Evil 2019 is set to build on its continued successes in new and ever more horrifying ways, bringing nights of entertainment and thrills to thousands more.

FearFest-Evil runs across selected nights in October 2019, from Friday the 11th and including Halloween.
